"NOT FIT TO DRINK"

CITY PHYSICIAN SAYS CITY WATER UNFIT EVEN FOR ANIMALS

PLANT WITHOUT A FILTER

No Filter Has Been Used for Months —Manager Dusenberry Explains Conditions at the Station

Doubtless you have noticed the dark brown color and unfamiliar taste of the city water being furnished for the past few days. You have probably remembered that o nformer occasions the city water was of the same color and taste for a day or two at a time, regaining its normal status within a few days at most, and have continued using it.

On former occasions the discoloring was due to the mains being flushed. At present the dirty and impure water is due to the fact that no filter is being used—in fact there is none to use.

Prior to the recent heavy rains the pump station was hard put to supply the water necessary, the river being unusually low. With the rains there came a big rush of dirty, muddy and impure water, that, barring a slight chemical treatment, is pumped into the mains and from there into the homes.

"It isn't fit for a horse to drink," was the way City Physician Dr. L. E. Dean expressed himself this morning. Continuing Dr. Dean said that he was of the opinion that the supply of water should come from the sand points, but that no provision had been made by the city to purchase equipment with which to do the pumping.

Wellington Dusenberry, manager of the water department, said this morning, when asked about the condition of the water, that the chief reason was that no filter was in use, there being none to use. Manager Dusenberry explained that when he took charge of the plant last winter he found that the filter was not being used and on investigation was told by employees that the former manager had said the filter was of no account and its use had been forbidden. On making a personal investigation he said the concrete bottom of the filter was found to be broken, the piping disconnected and otherwise practically worthless.

Mr. Dusenberry said that the plant was practically out of water before the recent rains and that with the river now full of dirty, muddy water it was being pumped into the reservoir and right out into the mains.

He said that in his opinion the sand points would supply a very large amount of water needed by the city, but that no pumps were available for pumping.

Meantime Maryville must continue to use dirty, impure water.

NEW POLICE GONGS PUT UP

Signal Stations at Bainum Hotel and Corner of Third and Main Streets Is In Operation Today

Maybe you wondered today as you saw workmen putting up two big electric gongs on the outside of the Bainum Hotel if the proprietor had devised a new scheme for notifying guests of the time of dinner hours, or to be used as a time indicator. Two big gongs, one on the Bainum Hotel and a second on the building occupied by Montgomery's shoe store were placed in position this morning to be used by the city police department. Press the button—a policeman appears.

If you are in need of an officer and can not reach one at the city hall, by telling "central" your needs, the gongs will be rung and an officer will "call in" and find out who is calling, going at once to the place.

And the police department advises that it will be best if no "jokes" are attempted.

SERVICES THURSDAY

PRESIDENT'S WISHES WILL BE RESPECTED BY CATHOLICS

HIGH MASS BE CHANTED

At Both St. Patrick's and St. Mary's the Blessed Sacrament Will Be Exposed During the Day

Announcement was made in the Catholic churches of Maryville Sunday that Thursday of this week, Memorial Day, will be a day of special service, in line with President Wilson's recent proclamation setting this date for "prayer, humiliation and fasting," asking the aid of God in the cause of America and her allies in the present world conflict.

In both of the Catholic churches high mass will be chanted. At St. Patrick's, Rev. Father Henry F. Niemann will have charge of the services at nine o'clock, when high mass and benediction will be said. At St. Mary's Rev. Father Odilo Scheiber will have charge of the services at high mass, which will be said at 8:30 o'clock in the morning; special services will also be held at 7:30 in the evening.

In all the churches the blessed sacrament will be exposed for public adoration the entire day. This is done only on special occasions and it is expected that throngs will visit the church hourly while the sacrament is on exposition.

Mrs. Isabelle Worst and Jamie Covey left Sunday morning for Lincoln, Neb., where they were called on account of the serious illness of the former's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Truman Worst.

50,178 POUNDS FLOUR RECOVERED

But a Compositor Made the Mistake of Making It Read 500,000.

A linotype compositor read the copy yesterday which said that the county food administrator had recovered 50,000 pounds of hoarded flour and, the amount evidently did not look large enough and so, just for good measure another cipher was added, making it read 500,000 pounds. The actual number of pounds recovered by county administrator, F. P. Robinson today is 50,178.

GENERAL WOOD TO PROTEST

Detached From His Command and Ordered West He Will Take the Matter Up With the President

Washington, May 28. — General Leonard Wood refuses to allow himself to be shelved without a vigorous protest. He was today ordered to proceed to San Francisco. He has arranged an appeal directly to the president and was given an audience late this afternoon.

Washington, May 28.—It is true—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood will not go to France. He has been detached from his command—the 89th division—and ordered to San Francisco for duty.

It was made known today that General Wood had been ordered to take command of the Western Department, with headquarters at San Francisco. Brigadier General Winn, one of his subordinates, will succeed to command for the time being of the Kansas-Missouri national army division, which General Wood had trained.

The news of the transfer of General Wood from a post in active command of troops to one of comparative unimportance in the present war—that of the Western Department—caught Washington by surprise and created the biggest bit of excitement military circles had known for a long time. While every on ewas reticent in discussing the sudden move of the war department on every hand it was regarded as practically shelving the senior major general of the army.

The afternoon lessons this week will be given to the uses of milk and eggs. Last week the instructions on meat were given by Miss Ora McMillen, Miss Anna Bainum and Mrs. E. T. Dale.

Wednesday afternoon Miss Laura Curfman instructed a large class at Hopkins and Tuesday afternoon Miss Katherine Carpenter took charge of the class at Parnell. All the other rural and town classes are doing splendid work and have a large membership enrolled.

A BIG NORMAL TERM

LARGE ATTENDANCE IS INDICATED FOR SUMMER TERM

325 ALREADY ENROLLED

Over 100 More Awaiting to Be Registered—The Normal Record Has Been Best Advertising

The big demand from all sections of the country for trained teachers gives indication that the enrollment at the Normal for the summer term will be far in excess of what was expected this year, war conditions being responsible for many young men and young women, too, finding profitable places in other lines of effort. The total registration at two o'clock this afternoon was 325, with approximately 150 more waiting to be enrolled.

Another factor in the increased attendance that will be shown at the Normal this summer is the splendid showing made by the school in all its departments and the business-like and systematic campaign of advertising that has found way into all of the counties in this district. The best advertising, however, has not been of the printer's ink variety, but of the students themselves, for the school spirit has developed to a large extent within the past few years, and this added to results that have been most apparent in classes and on the field, is showing returns.

There remains the entire week yet for enrollments and it is quite likely that the total attendance this summer will be around the 1,000 mark. Every train today brought additional pupils and many who advised they were coming have not yet arrived.

The absence of young men this summer is apt to be more noticeable than ever, as many prospective male students have either been called to the colors or have found profitable employment in other lines.

I Am the Red Cross.

I am the symbol of the pity of God.

I burgeon upon the flaunting banner of victory and the drooping guidon of defeat.

I am the token of peace in the midst of battle, of gentleness shining through the somber mists of hate.

I am a chevron on the sleeve of mercy, an honor mark set high upon the brow of compassion.

I am the color of blood spilled for democracy, the form of Christ's tree of agony, and my followers, at need, crucify themselves to make men live.

I carry the hope of life into the red pits of death, and a dying soldier salutes me as he goes to touch the hand of God Almighty.

I stand for the organized love of mankind, the co-ordinated impulses of young and old to do good, the sacred efficiency of human service.

I mark the flag under which are mobilized the forces of industry and finance, of church and school, of capital, of labor, of genius and of sinew.

I am Civilization's Godspeed to those who defend her.

I am the message from home.

I am the Symbol of the pity of God.

I AM THE RED CROSS.

Notice—All auxiliaries must send with their shipment of dressings or other articles a complete list, together with the name of the auxiliary and name of the instructor.

The Red Cross and the Council of National Defense.

The division office has been asked to state the relationship between the Red Cross and the Council of National Defense.

"The Woman's Council of Defense is not an organization—it is a committee of organizations whose function is the mobilization of existing organizations, to prevent over-lapping and duplication.

"It is the channel through which our government informs its women what it expects them to do in war work and through what organizations they may do their war work.

"The duty of the state committees of the Council of Defense is to mobilize the woman power of the state for war work and see that the women go into the work of proper existing organizations."

This statement makes it clear that the state committees of women do not administer or operate any work. Their's is not an executive function. The Red Cross always works in complete harmony and accord with the Council of Defense and all of its committees, and greatly acknowledges the value of those committees who direct to our respective chapters the women of their state who are ready to serve their country through this, the official channel established by congress as the instrument for executing the women's work for relief of human suffering.

Red Cross headquarters advises that no official Red Cross emblems are furnished to those who donate in the war fund campaign just closed.

All instructors are asked to call at headquarters and secure blank forms for the "oath of allegiance" that are required to be signed by volunteer workers.

Besides this the boys have made boxes for the shipment of the supplies.

The shipment to divisional headquarters this week consisted of 1,984 surgical dressings, 102 knitted articles, 3808 garments. This is the largest shipment yet made by the chapter, the dressings being large ones, requiring lots of sewing. Up to date 182,501 surgical dressings, 28,262 garments, 2,850 knitted articles, a grand total of 213,625 articles, have been sent to the division offices.

M. J. Alderman, secretary, wishes that chairmen for the drive who have an over-supply of Red Cross lapel pins would send them in, as the chapter is short.

The Intellectual auxiliary sent in this week 9 hospital shirts, 1 pair of socks and 1 pair wristlets.

The Nation is doing its bit these days;
In its paying the price in a number of ways:
In blood and in money, in labor and tears,
In longings and heartaches and comfortless years.
And someone must shoulder the burden you shun—
Must take up your service—or leave it undone.
The Nation is doing its bit, 'tis true—
The others are working and giving.
Are you?

—Martha Hart.

The Lasher auxiliary of the Red Cross will meet on Wednesday of this week instead of Thursday because of Decoration Day. The all-day meeting which was to have been held this week has been postponed indefinitely.

Luxury and Economy Combined

THE MOST ECONOMICAL METHOD OF COOKING IN WARM WEATHER, AND AT THE SAME TIME WITH THE LEAST WORK IS THE FIRELESS COOKER METHOD. We are showing several sizes and prices in the

Ideal Fireless Cook Stove

The Ideal is the very latest development of the Fireless Cook-stove. It is made of aluminum inside with aluminum cooking utensils, and the outer case is built like a book case—regular cabinet construction.

Fireless cooking is accomplished by imprisoned heat, and the Ideal Fireless Cook Stove is insulated in such a manner that the heat retention is positive.

Anything can be cooked by this method, and the saving of fuel is only one of the advantages—it is a great one, however, as it requires only a small fraction of the same fuel consumption to cook with the Fireless Cook Stove.

There is absolutely no chance of overlooking or burning food cooked by the fireless method, because there is just so much heat in the cooker and when that is used the food will stop cooking and simply stay hot.

If we should offer to give you one of these stoves if you would give us what you save in meat alone what would you say? We would be glad to do that but you would soon be sick of your bargain. By ordinary cooking, meat shrinks from 10 to 25 per cent, but in the Ideal Cook Stove IT COMES OUT WEIGHING THE SAME AS WHEN IT WENT IN.

Things cooked in the Fireless Cook Stove have a delicious flavor because all of the juices and natural aromas are preserved. Nothing CAN GET OUT OF THE FIRELESS COOK STOVE AND NOTHING CAN GET IN.

COME AND SEE THE "IDEAL" and watch for announcement of our big Fireless Cooking Demonstration in the near future.

Sleeve Band and Gilt Star Mourning for War's Dead

Washington, May 28. — President Wilson has approved a suggestion made by the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense, instead of wearing conventional mourning for relatives who have died in the service of their country, American women should wear a black band on the left arm with a gilt star on the band for each member of the family who has given up his life for the nation. The following letter to Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, chairman of the Woman's Committee, contains the president's approval:

"My Dear Dr. Shaw:—Thank you for your letter of yesterday. I do entirely approve of the action taken by the Woman's Committee in executive session, namely, that a three-inch black band should be worn upon which a gilt star may be placed for each member of the family whose life is lost in the service, and that the band shall be worn on the left arm. I hope and believe that thoughful people everywhere will approve of this action and I hope that you will be kind enough to make the suggestion of the committee public with the statement that it has my cordial endorsement. Cordially and sincerely yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

In an explanatory statement on the subject the Woman's Committee says:

"This action of the committee at this time is prompted by a feeling on their part that we should determine beforehand the attitude we are to take towards the inevitable growing death roll of the defenders of our country. The wearing of such insignia will, they feel, express better than mourning the feeling of the American people that such losses are a matter of glory rather than a prostrating grief and depression.

"For a long time the Woman's Committee has been receiving letters from women urging some such action on their part. The determined avoidance of mourning by English women has been much commented upon and praised. One woman who advocates this step has four sons in the service, one of whom has already been killed. She wrote recently:

"'I know the costliness of such supreme glory and sacrifice and have felt both the selfish temptation to hide my pain behind a mourning that would hold off intrusion and the inspiration and stimulus of keeping up to my gallant son's expectation that I should regard his death as a happy promotion into higher service. Patriotism means such exalted living that dying is not the harder part.'"

DRY GOODS MERCHANTS MEET

Facing Serious War Problems In Keeping Stocks of Goods—New Conditions to be Met

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Chicago, May 27. — Necessary readjustment because of import restrictions, embargoes on the shipment of coal to non-essential industries and the constantly increasing difficult labor situation are three of the more important problems facing the members of the National Retail Drygoods Association, who opened their annual Spring meeting here today.

The meeting will continue throughout tomorrow, and all sessions will be held at the Blackstone Hotel.

Other important matters affecting the retail trade as the direct result of war are scheduled to receive attention.

Many prominent merchants will address the meeting, expressing their opinions regarding means of meeting the new conditions. It is expected that from three hundred to four hundred leading merchants, representing practically every state in the Union, will not only attend the sessions but will take active part in the all-important program.

DON'T THROW RICE AT BRIDES

Wedding Guests Are Urged to Find Some Less Valuable Substitute For the Ceremony

Now that the season of June brides is almost here the Missouri division of the food administration has called attention to the fact that those who have been accustomed to throwing rice at departing brides and bridegrooms should find some less valuable substitute. Rice is too precious to waste, it is pointed out. Every grain is needed for human food, as it will go far toward making up for the lack of wheat in the diet. When cast at bridal parties at church doors, railway stations or hotels it is a total loss.

Prospective June brides are also reminded to make their wedding feasts patriotic. They should not use frosting on cake because of the amount of sugar required.

Persons with old shoes are advised to send them to the poor people of France and Belgium instead of tying them on the back of departing taxicabs.

Mrs. B. F. Lowry returned last night from Grant City where she was called by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. May Beason, who is at the home of her brother, R. H. Lowry.

HOGS AND CATTLE ARE LOWER

Packers Standing Out for Less Money —Price on Sheep and Lambs Continues to Advance

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 27.—Packers disregarded the fact that comparatively few fat cattle were in the run, and continued to depress prices, market weak to 10 lower, receipts 12000 head, top $17.25. Hog prices opened 5 lower, but finished 15 to 25 lower, top $17.10, receipts 12000 head. Sheep and lambs sold 25 to 35 higher, top lambs $20.25, receipts 7500.

Beef Cattle.

The supply of native fed steers was light, and the best of these sold around $16.50. Various lots of pulp fed steers sold at $16.50 to $17.25. 7 cars of Gebhart steers brought the top in the pulp fed class, $17.25, as compared with $17.55 for some of them a week ago. 10 cars of South Texas cake fed steers weighing 937 lbs brought $12.50. These cattle stopped in Forth Worth, and the bid on them there was $11.00. Arizona canners brought $7.90 to $8.25. Some low grade Arizona stockers, $8.50 and some light Arizona fed steers 850 lbs brought $12.50. Cows sold weak to 10 lower, at $8.50 to $14.00.

Stockers and Feeders.

Stockers offered, included 115 Panhandle steers weighing 397 lbs, at $13.25, and 208 Panhandle stock heifers weighing 389 lbs at $12.25. These were from the dry district in Texas south of Amarillo; there will be some big shipments from that section here later this week. Common Arizona stockers sold at $8.50. Feeding steers reached $16.00 last week, the highest price on record here.

Hogs.

Order buyers and speculators paid $17.10 for light hogs and $17.05 for both medium and heavy hogs. These were 5 to 10 lower, but packers stood out for 15 to 25 lower prices and bought most of their hogs that way, stopping at $17.00. Bulk of all sales ranged from $16.80 to $17.05. The usual June break is being enforced and will probably continue this week if receipts hold up. Pigs sold steady today but considerably lower than last week. Good native stock pigs $17.00 to $17.25.

Sheep and Lambs.

You Are Not Comfortable in ill-fitting underwear. Women are demanding nicely tailored undergarments the same as well-made outer garments. There is a great difference in underwear and women are beginning to realize this. They are discarding the ordinary makes for Carter's, Kayser and Forest Mills. These makes are considered by those who know to be the best merchandise made. These garments are beautifully tailored and trimmed—the material is lisle thread instead of cotton, which insures a beautiful garment after washing—the garments are properly sized—a 36 is a 36, and so on.

Make it a point to make your next purchases here and be comfortable this summer.
